

Tom Warren Wins 2009 Lonsdale Senior Amateur

Queenscliff's Tom Warren has started the 2009 senior golf year in style by winning the Lonsdale Senior Amateur played over 36-holes from Thursday February 6th to Friday February 7th.

After being unable to play senior events during 2008, 57-year-old Warren, returned rounds of 75 and 72 for a two round total of 147 to win by three-strokes from Campbell Muller of The Sands and Colac's Greg Welsh on 150.

Royal Melbourne's Steve Lilley took out the nett trophy with a 36-hole total of 135 from a handicap of 11, including a stella second round of 64. The runner-up award went to Campbell Muller with a total of 140 from a five handicap.

The Doug Bachli Senior Trophy continues with the Cranbourne Senior Amateur to be played over 36-holes on Monday March 16th and Tuesday March 17th.

Full scores and point allocations from the 2009 Lonsdale Senior Amateur were as follows:
